4. Definitions

"EcoNorth" or "we" or "us" or "our" means EcoNorth Ltd.

"Personal data" means any information relating to an identified or identifiable natural person. In legal terms, a natural person is a person that is an individual human being, distinguished from the broader category of a legal person, which may be a private (ie business entity or non-governmental organisation) or public (ie government) organisation. An identifiable natural person is one who can be identified directly or indirectly, in particular by reference to an identifier such as a name, identification number, location data, online identifier or to one or more factors specific to the physical, physiological, genetic, mental, economic, cultural or social identity of that natural person.

“Special category data” means sensitive personal data which includes racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs, dietary choices, trade union membership, physical or mental wellbeing, a Data Subject’s sex, gender identity or sexual orientation and the processing of genetic data or biometric data for the purpose of uniquely identifying a Data Subject. In order to lawfully process special category data, both a lawful basis under Article 6 of the GDPR and a separate condition for processing under Article 9 must be identified; these do not have to be linked.

“Data Controller” means the natural or legal person, public authority, agency or other body which, alone or jointly with others, who determines the purposes and means of the processing of personal data.

“Data Subject” means an individual on whom data is collected and processed. This can be an organisation’s customers, contractors, suppliers and employees for example.

“Processing” means any operation or set of operations performed on personal data or on sets of personal data, whether or not by automated means such as collection, recording, organisation, structuring, storage, adaptation or alteration, retrieval, consultation, use, disclosure by transmission, dissemination or otherwise making available, alignment or combination, restriction, erasure or destruction.

5. Privacy Promise

EcoNorth promises to:

- Process personal data fairly, lawfully and transparently.
- Process personal data for the legitimate purpose for which that personal data was originally collected.
- Only collect personal data that is essential for the fulfilment of that legitimate purpose.
- Retain personal data only when necessary and delete it once its legitimate purpose has been fulfilled.
- Ensure all personal data that is processed is accurate and kept up to date.
- Ensure that robust security measures are in place to protect against unauthorised or unlawful processing of personal data.
- Ensure Data Subjects know how to exercise their rights in relation to personal data.

- Where it is necessary for performing a contract EcoNorth has entered into with you.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.
- Where, on the rare occasion, it becomes necessary to protect your vital interests.
- Where it is in the public interest.
- Where we have your informed consent.
- Where it is necessary for the purposes of the legitimate interests of EcoNorth.

9. Data Sharing

Personal data is processed within the UK and Ireland only. It is shared within EcoNorth, where appropriate, and with our business partners and trusted affiliates where permission has been granted or where we are required to do so by law.

10. Data Retention

EcoNorth retains personal data for as long as we need it for the purpose for which it is being processed and in line with legal requirements, after which we employ measures to permanently destroy / delete / anonymise it securely when there is no longer a legal or consumer need for it to be retained.

11. Web Browser Cookies

Please refer to EcoNorth's Cookie Policy for information.

12. Data Security

EcoNorth has adopted appropriate data collection, storage and processing practices and robust security measures to protect all personal data against unauthorised access, improper use, alteration, disclosure or destruction or accidental loss.

In the event of a suspected data breach, EcoNorth will notify Data Subjects and the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) in the UK and/or the Data Protection Commission in Ireland of this event, where we are legally required to do so.

13. Data Subjects' Rights

Data Subjects have the following rights with regard to the processing of their personal data:

- The right to ask for information about what personal data is being processed and the rationale for such processing.
